Bulletin Announcements

Please email bulletin@olbh.org by noon on Tuesday for the following Sunday bulletin.

Sparks from Fr. Mark

This past spring we started an Adult Life group, which meets on Sunday afternoons at the same time as the Sprouts (Pre K-5), Edge (Middle School), and Life Teen (High School) faith formation programs. The Adult Life group has been studying and learning right along with the Edge and Life Teen groups this semester on the theme of Social Justice, grounded in Catholic Social Teachings.

In one of our lessons, entitled, "The Home Front: Promoting a Culture of Life at Home," we looked at promoting truth in the media, especially when it comes to seeing our sexuality as a gift from God. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 2520) highlights for us that chastity brings purity of heart and purity of vision—a direct contrast to what the media often promotes. We had an intense conversation on this topic.

This past week I received a letter from a parishioner called out by the Holy Spirit to promote this truth in the media by challenging the sexually explicit billboard on I-90 near exit 48. This letter will be in the gathering area, and if you feel so moved, please add your signature in support of the dignity of the human person and respect for families. I will send it to Lamar Outdoor Advertising and Cadillac Jack's Casino.

It's Back, It's Fun, It's for EVERYONE!

Basket Auction and Dinner

Saturday, May 8th, 2010 at 6:00 pm.

This is a great time for the people of the parish to get together, have fun and support our youth and their activities! The Basket Auction & Dinners is an annual fundraiser hosted by the youth of OLBH who will be attending Steubenville and who will be going on a mission to St. Louise. The youth plan this event with the help of their parents and it is always a great time! We thank you for your prayers in making this a success and your support.

Reflection Questions for Next Sunday

Jesus commands us to love one another!

Children: How do you make obvious that you love your family and friends?

Youth: The world is full of examples of people who don't love others. What are the results of hate that you see in the world? How would the world be different if we followed Jesus' commandment?

Adults: Jesus' commandment to love another is a challenge. What will you do this week to deepen the love you have for those around you in life?

Financial Peace University

Financial Peace University is a biblically-based accountability curriculum developed by Dave Ramsey that teaches people how to manage money and resources. It empowers people to make the right financial decisions to achieve their financial goals and teaches them how to eliminate debt and build wealth. A free preview of the course will be held at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 21. The free 13-week course will meet on Mondays from 6:30-8:30 p.m., beginning on April 26. The fee for course materials is $99. For more information or to register for the course, contact Kerri Allardyce at 307-272-1788 or kerri@cowboyimages.net or Father McCormick at 787-5168 or mark.mccormick@olbh.org.

OLBH Book Discussion Group

Members of the OLBH Book Discussion group will be exchanging ideas about the Holy Trinity at their next meeting. Members invite you to join them on Monday, May 3, at 7 p.m. in the parish library. The particular focus of the evening will be discussing the book The Divine Family: The Trinity and Our Life in God by Father William McDonough. The book describes the author's view of the Trinity with their distinct personalities and gifts to the human family. Many types of relationships within the holy family are compared to those we know on earth. A copy of the book can be checked out from the New Book Shelf in the library. For additional information, call Mary Coffin 718-7431.

Pray for the Success of Terra Sancta

Eucharistic Adoration with Solemn Exposition

Eucharistic Adoration with Solemn Exposition will be held in the main chapel at Terra Sancta (formerly St. Martin Monastery) from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Friday, April 30. Wearing a sweater or light jacket is recommended. As Bishop Blase Cupich wrote in the West River Catholic, the name Terra Sancta is the Latin term for the Holy Land. It is a name that connects us with the place where Jesus lived, died and rose again. It is also a place where all Catholics in western South Dakota will feel at home. Please join the St. Faustina Divine Mercy Intercessory Prayer Group in praying for the future of Terra Sancta. For details, call Halina Hladysz at 718-5719 or email Gail Wingert at gwingert@rap.midco.net

Annual Mayfest Dinner and Auction

The 30th Annual Mayfest Dinner and Auction will be held on May 1 at the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center. Doors open at 5:00 p.m. Mayfest is the largest annual fundraiser for the Rapid City Catholic School System. Enjoy an evening of fun, fellowship and fine dining. The live auction will include exotic trips, fabulous parties and unique experiences. There will also be a silent auction and auctions featuring desserts, wine, art, and gift baskets. To make a reservation, call Rich Raposa at 391-2110 or email mayfestauction@gmail.com before April 28.

HOLY ELDERS

The Holy Elders will meet Thursday, May 6, at Blessed Sacrament. We will begin with Mass at 12:10 p.m., followed by a potluck lunch in the Parish Hall. There will be a short talk by Jim Bussel from the Fire Department. After that – fun and games! All elders are welcome!

Are You a Divorced Catholic? Do You Know Someone Who is?

Have you ever wondered what a church annulment is? Some of the most common questions asked about annulments are: How does an annulment affect the legitimacy of my children? Does a divorced non-Catholic need to get an annulment before marrying a Catholic? Do you have to wait for an annulment before getting remarried? What if I am already remarried? All these questions and more will be answered at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 11, 2010. Join Fr. Leo Hausmann and Fr. Dan Juelfs for an informational meeting on Catholic annulments at Blessed Sacrament Church, 4500 Jackson Blvd., Rapid City, SD. There is no charge to attend. For more information, contact Jill, Family Life Ministries, 605-343-3541 or jslegner@diorc.org.

OUR HEARTS ARE ON FIRE WITH FUTURE HOPE

"Life is hard. Times are tough. Human issues overwhelm us," said Fr. Shields. "What can the Pentecost event say to us about finding a hopeful human condition in a pretty dark and scary world?" St. Martin Monastery Spring Retreat will be lead by Fr. David M. Shields, S.J., retreat director. Mark your calendars for May 21-22 (starts Friday 6:30 pm, Saturday 7:30 am - 7 pm) to join us on a retreat in the Pentecostal Spirit: "Our Hearts are on Fire with Future Hope." Father Shields is well known in western South Dakota. He worked for 18 years on the Pine Ridge Reservation, one year at the Sioux Spiritual Center, and he took a position in the Diocese of Rapid City's Family Life Center. He continues directing and preaching retreats in his current position as executive director of Casa Romero Renewal Center, an urban bi-lingual retreat center in Milwaukee. Offering: $80.00. Do not stay away for lack of funds, because some scholarships are available (see Sr. Marmion). This is not a "live in" retreat; a few beds are available for $20.00 a night on a first come, first serve basis. Registration is necessary; please register with Sister Marmion Howe, (605) 343 8011, srmarmion@aol.com

Sisters Moved into New Monastery

In August, 2009, the Benedictine Sisters of St. Martin Monastery moved from their old building into their new monastery. The new building features a chapel, offices, meeting rooms, a health care unit, and living quarters for the sisters. It is called St. Martin Monastery and is located on 160 acres adjacent to the St. Martin property acquired by the Diocese of Rapid City and the Rapid City Catholic School System and now called Terra Sancta. When the first-phase renovations to the buildings on the Terra Sancta property are finished, the diocese and the school system will continue the work of the sisters by offering spiritual direction and education.

We'll Miss This Messenger!

An Update from Hope For New Life Jail Ministry

This graduation season brings about an occasion that is both joyous and sad for our jail ministry group. Let us share a bit about a special volunteer: Cathy Sass, who has been visiting the jail for the past three years. Cathy is a busy Engineering Major at SDSM&T who's excited about her next step in life—a good job and a fiancé waiting for her in Kansas. (Congrats!) As our youngest 'minister', she brings a sense of hopeful wonder and awe to the programs. Her love of our faith and an easy smile encourages others to want to learn more. (We will miss you!). She provides a valuable example of "who is most apt to get involved in jail ministry" because Cathy is a reminder that THERE IS NO MOLD for this position! We are men and women of all ages and from all walks of life. We are also from all different parishes in the Rapid City area. We are bound only by a desire to share Christ's message of love and mercy with men and women who are at a crossroad in their lives—seeking to know more about God and faith. Have you ever wondered if jail ministry might be your special calling? For more information, contact Tony Galles (348-2301) or Mary Sperlich (342-9343).

From the Diocesan Pro-Life Commission

"The Church offers the world a positive and inspiring vision of human life, the beauty of marriage and the joy of parenthood. It is rooted in God's infinite, transforming and ennobling love for all of us, which opens our eyes to recognize and love his image in our neighbor. ... Be sure to present this teaching in such a way that it is recognized for the message of hope that it is. All too often the Church's doctrine is perceived as a series of prohibitions and retrograde positions, whereas the reality, as we know, is that it is creative and life-giving, and it is directed towards the fullest possible realization of the great potential for good and for happiness that God has implanted within every one of us." Pope Benedict XVI, Ad Limina Address to the Bishops of Scotland, February 5, 2010. www.usccb.org

For the Ride Home

By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- ❖ I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth. (Acts 13:47)
- ❖ Know that the LORD is God; he made us, his we are; his people, the flock he tends. (Psalm 100:3)
- ❖ For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. (Revelations 7:17)
- ❖ My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me (John 10:27)

Reflection

- ❖ How does the Lord shepherd you?
- ❖ How are you an instrument of salvation?

Essentially, what is the way through which we run? Christ said, "I am the way." What is the homeland to which we are running? Christ said: "I am the truth." You run through Him, you run to Him, and you rest in Him." We were sick and could not move. And so the physician came to the patient; the way was prepared for the wanderers. Let us be saved by Him; let us walk through him.

SPRING UPDATE 2010
Fellowship of Catholic University Students

Greetings from your FOCUS missionary! This year has been incredibly blessed with the number of students participating in Bible studies and FOCUS activities at Mount St. Mary's University in Emmitsburg, Maryland. I have been extremely fortunate to be a part of our four-member FOCUS team and experience firsthand how God is working in the lives of college students.

The most incredible moments to share with you occurred during Christmas break. From December 30th to January 3rd, four thousand people – mostly college students – gathered at the FOCUS National Conference, Made for More, to learn what it means to be a Catholic leader in today's world. The five-day event was filled with Mass, prayer, sessions with leading Catholic speakers of the day, and fellowship. The power of that many people gathering together and opening their hearts to our Lord was truly a remarkable experience, one that I will never forget.

A student shared the following observation about confession at the conference, "I saw the longest line for the Sacrament of Reconciliation that I have ever seen, consisting of almost entirely college students. This line stretched the length and width of a ballroom which held nearly 4,000 seats. While on vacation, these young adults chose to wait for about an hour to receive the Lord's Mercy, to confess their sins and failings to a priest. Over a period of three hours, 2,500 souls were absolved of their sins."

Thank you for being a part of this mission and making such a difference in the lives of so many college students through your prayers and support!

You are in my prayers.
